

Promoting the Developmental Benefits of the CDM

An African case study

“Capacity building programs such as Pembina’s Small Project Facility are extremely critical to supporting the development of small-scale CDM projects in regions such as Africa“

- Tom Owino, Kenya

COP 11 Side Event
Saturday, 3 December 2005
13:00-15:00 hrs

Palais des congrès de Montréal
Room 2

Sharing first-hand experience on ...

- Successful capacity building models
- Increased “development dividends” of marketable projects
- Leveraging CDM financing for local benefits and national development objectives

Tom Owino,

Environmental Cost Management Centre, Kenya

Deborah Murphy,

International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD), Canada

Marc Koene,

Natuur en Milieu, The Netherlands

Refreshments served.

This event is made possible with generous support from the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA).

The logo for the Pembina Institute, featuring the word "PEMBINA" in a large, bold, blue sans-serif font, with "i n s t i t u t e" in a smaller, blue sans-serif font below it. To the left of the text is a stylized graphic element consisting of a vertical line and a horizontal line forming a partial 'P' shape.

More Information:

Carol Brunt, Director International Program
The Pembina Institute
Tel: +1 819.483.6288 Ext. 23
carolb@pembina.org
www.pembina.org